February 25, 2025

i3Forum is committed to conducting business with the utmost integrity and in accordance with the highest ethical standards. i3Forum has established these guidelines, which apply to all i3Forum Board, Committees, Working Groups, and other initiatives, to assist i3Forum Participants and Leaders with participating in and running fair, productive, and courteous meetings. These guidelines supplement and build upon other policies and procedures in i3Forum Procedures. Violations of these may impact an individual's and/or a company's continued participation in a Working Group and/or i3Forum.

- 1. Professionalism & Courtesy : The work of i3Forum relies on cooperation among a diverse group of Participants with different ideas, personalities, and communication styles. i3Forum strives to create and maintain an environment in which every person is treated with dignity, decency, and respect, without regard to age, gender, religion, etc.
- 2. Openness
 - a. Meeting Schedules : i3Forum's Procedures generally requires six days' advance notice of virtual meetings. Meeting invitations are sent by Chair/Vice-Chair/Co-Chairs, and may only be forwarded to other recipients with the approval of Chair/Vice-Chair/Co-Chairs.
 - b. Time zones : Working Groups will endeavor to organize their work and meetings in such a manner that will allow participant from all time zones to engage as equally as possible
 - c. Meeting Agendas : Meeting agendas are to be distributed prior to meetings and approved at the start of meetings. Any concerns with proposed meeting agendas should be raised with Chair/Vice-Chair/Co-Chairs in a timely manner. Changes to an agenda that affect the timing of votes or consensus decision-making should be announced in advance of a meeting.
 - d. Meeting Minutes : objective and unbiased meeting notes (not verbatim transcripts) are to be published after the meeting

3. Transparency

- a. Company Affiliation, Disclosure and Voting : Except when inviting SMEs and Guests (see below), i3Forum does not permit individuals that are unaffiliated with i3Forum member companies to participate in i3Forum meetings. Each participant must identify the organization(s) they are representing, including when representing multiple organizations. Failure to identify clearly affiliation will result in not being permitted to vote, and being asked to leave the meeting.
- b. Chair/Vice-Chair/Co-Chairs Direction vs. Working Group Input : Chair/Vice-Chair/Co-Chairs should remain neutral in all discussions. Chair/Vice-Chair/Co-Chairs may provide input expressing their organization's view but must clearly indicate that is what he/she is doing. One way to accomplish this is for the Leader to indicate he/she is taking "off the leadership hat."
- c. Invited SMEs and Guests : At times, i3Forum permits non-member Subject Matter Experts (SMEs), Advisors and Guests to attend i3Forum's meetings. Such attendance is typically for a limited period. All i3Forum meeting attendees, including SMEs and Guests, are required to abide by One Consortium Procedures.

4. Fairness

- a. Decision-Making in working groups : While consensus is always sought as the best way to make decisions in a working group, and in order to avoid stalemate or unnecessarily lengthy discussions, decisions can be put to the vote by Chair/Vice-Chair/Co-Chairs. The first question put to the vote will always be on "Are the voting members ready to vote?" (i.e. possess sufficient information, are confident that they are representing their company's position etc.).
- b. Opting-out : Voting members who significantly disagree with the result of a vote can, in addition to voting "no", can also at their discretion, declare that they "opt-out" of the decision – this will be recorded in the minutes and made public should the decision made be publicized. Participant 'opting-out' of a decision must state a rationale. "opt-outs" without a rationale should not be considered.
- c. Final approval of Working Groups deliverable/output is the responsibility of the i3Forum Leadership, and may in some instance include submission to all i3Forum voting members for acceptance.
